Guidelines for Accreditation and
Training in General
Dentistry

1. Introduction

This is a document for the non-specialist training and accreditation for general dentists in Hong Kong.

General Dentistry is defined as the evaluation, diagnosis, prevention and/or treatment (non-surgical, surgical or related procedures) of diseases, disorders and/or conditions of the oral cavity, maxillofacial area and/or the adjacent and associated structures and their impact on the human body; provided by a dentist, within the scope of his/her education, training and experience, in accordance with the ethics of the profession and applicable law. *

We understand the provision of clinical dental service is shouldered by general dentists and specialists. It is always stressed that Continuous Professional Development (CPD) is essential for maintaining high standard of care.

In term of CPD, specialist training is usually institution-based so as to cope with societal demand of extremely high standard. However, General Dental Practitioners ( GDP ) tend to favour CPD by a system which is flexible in time and place and can be accessible from various training institutes, be it local or overseas, More importantly, the qualifications should be recognizable so as to let public be aware of their effort and the attained Competence Standards (CS).

That also explains why some overseas imported examination oriented qualifications are so popular in the local dental community.

We also notice that there is a global trend that dentists, dental organizations and leaders are striving for clinical excellence and quality service by

- Identifying Competence Standards ( CS )and best practice in clinical practice,
- Defining the Competence Standards of generalist and specialist and the provision of a systematic training plan and pathway for ALL dentists,
- Establishing an academic home for Specialist and GDP and
- Increasing awareness of quality dentistry through education and health promotion to patients.

Recent developments in the GDP training provoke deep thought by the local academia, professional and statutory organizations regarding the establishment of local GDP academic home and a Qualification Framework (QF) with well structured education programs for acquiring clinical and practice related competences.

The purpose is to ensure the quality of examination outcome and hence quality of care.

In February 2007, the Council of the College of Dental Surgeons of Hong Kong set up a Preparatory Committee for GDP (PCGDP). Its functions are

- To provide the Council with the information regarding the background and the present situation of GDP training in Hong Kong
- To recommend the Council a qualification framework ( QF )for GDP within the CDSHK
- To recommend the Council on the organization structure for maintaining such qualification framework

The 'Guidelines for Accreditation and Training in General Dentistry' is the research outcome of the Preparatory Committee for GDP. It is submitted to the Council and is adopted in principle on 22nd March, 2007.

Prepared by
Committee of General Dentistry 2007

2. Qualification Framework on General Dentistry (QF GD)

Introduction

Given the challenges in the assuring quality dental health care to patient, a QF GD may be able to solve the most important issue i.e. the benchmarking of competencies standards, its attainment and maintenance.

A QF GD also allows diversity on mode of training for dentists and cooperation between internationally reputable organizations and local statutory bodies in conducting examination without sacrificing autonomy in defining context and format of recognition.

Qualification Framework (QF)

The QF is a hierarchy that orders and supports qualifications of academic, vocational and continuing education.

In the meantime, we focus on the level of competencies that are relevant to general dentists of at least 36 months of practice experience. A Diploma of Membership in General Dentistry will be granted to successful candidates.

The competence standards (CS) also provide guidance for young dentists in formulating their early vocational training plan.

All specialists are general dentists at the beginning and the QF GD will lay the strongest foundation for who aspires to proceed to specialist training.

The organization within CDSHK to maintain the QF GD is the Committee of General Dentistry (CGD).

Competency Standards (CS)

To strengthen the profession leading role in the development of post-graduate training so as to enhance the effectiveness of the latter, Competence Standards (CS) should be formulated by the relevant statutory bodies such as CDSHK.

These competency standards represent the profession benchmarks for the skills, knowledge and attributes required to perform to a satisfactory level.

There are two domains in competence for GDP, namely clinical competency and practice related competences. General Practice differs from traditional technique dominant specialties that practice related competences occupy a significant portion of a quality GDP. Effort should be invested in this aspect and the practitioner should be assessed in depth.

To ensure continued relevance of the CS, CDSHK must review and update the CS regularly to keep abreast of the latest developments. Minor amendments to the competence standards may also be required regularly.

Credit Point System (CPS)

Since CS-based programs are developed with units of competence in form of credit points. Trainees may have their qualifications including qualifications obtained from formal studies accumulated and move along the ladder of progression without the need to start from scratch.

The CS also provides clear progression pathways whereby trainees may draw up their own career development plans.

Training and Examination

After the CS has been formulated, training providers will be able to design education programs that would help trainees achieve the specified competence standards. As the competence standards were developed by CDSHK locally, the relevance of the education programs to the requirements of the profession would be ensured.

Upon completion of CS-based programs in form of taught modules and the requisite examination, trainees will possess skills that can be objectively measured.

Credit Accumulation and Transfer (CAT)

Under the QF, qualifications are not confined to local academic and training attainment. A Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) mechanism developed by CGD is in place to recognize existing dentists' skills, knowledge and work experience.

To facilitate lifelong learning, dentists require flexibility in the mode and pattern of learning to cater for their work and family responsibilities. A Credit Accumulation and Transfer (CAT) system will provide the flexibility to suit individual circumstances and minimize duplication in training.

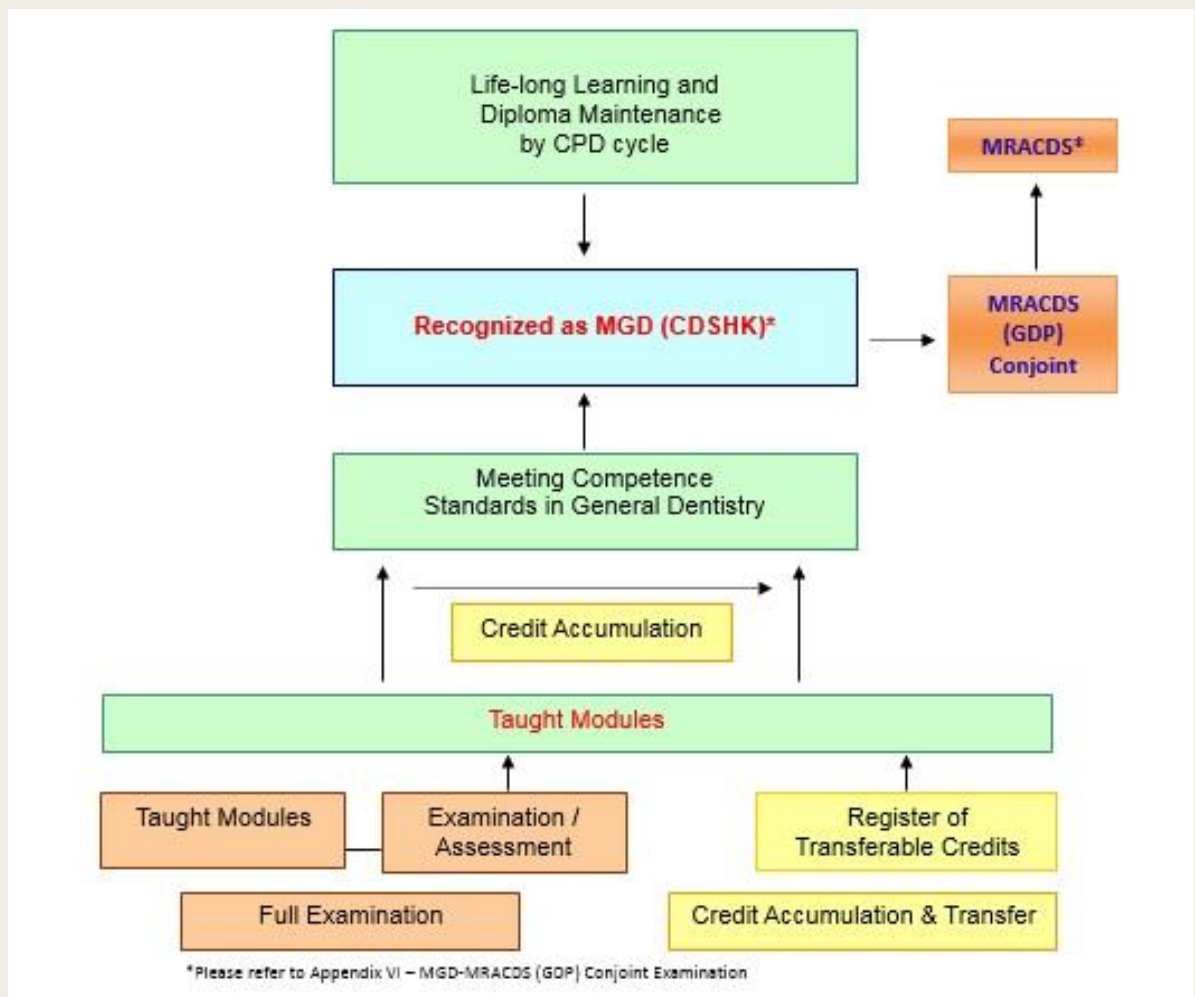

With a CAT system, trainees can systematically accumulate the credits of learning and training gained from various courses with a view to converting the accumulated credits to fulfill the requirements of the Membership in General Dentistry examination from CDSHK. The development of a Register of Transferable Credit (RTC) will facilitate CAT arrangement between bodies granting local and overseas qualifications by providing a unified platform and common benchmarks.

Life-long Learning by CPD cycle

To make the QF relevant to current general practice, holders of the Diploma of Membership in General Dentistry should commit to life-long learning by entering into CDSHK CPD cycle for Diploma maintenance. The Qualification Framework on General Dentistry (QF GD) is depicted in Figure 1.

Under the present QF GD, the aim for the candidate is to obtain the Diploma of Membership in General Dentistry, which can be achieved by:

1. Passing the full MGD Examination, or
2. Credit Accumulation and Transfer and passing the relevant parts of the MGD Examination.

*MGD (CDSHK) - Candidates are required to submit a “Letter of Good Standing” before they are eligible to apply for MGD. (issued within 6 months of the submission date of the MGD application to the College of Dental Surgeons of Hong Kong)
